

Zarqa University

Faculty of pharmacy

1101597

Clinical nutrition

This course will discuss the basic principles of clinical nutrition during both normal and diseased conditions. Obesity and its relation with physical exercises, home parenteral nutrition, food-induced allergy, special nutrition for disease states, and the diagnosis of diseases related to vitamins and minerals deficiency.