

Services Courses Coordination Unit

No. of course	Course Name	Hours	Prerequisite No.
0400301	Accounting 1	3	-

The focus in this course is on the following elements: accounting, its origin, definition and development, the economic unit and its relationship to the accounting cycle, accounting principles, concepts and credits together, double entry theory, accounting registration, posting and balance, dealing with financing, capital and revenue operations and preparing financial statements (income statement, financial position and rights Ownership) and correct accounting errors.