

Architectural Criticism and Analysis [3 – 0 – 3]	Course #:0908511	Prereq.:0908322
This course discusses the concept and history of architectural criticism. It introduces the significance of architectural analysis through analyzing case studies of architectural critics who influence contemporary architectural trends in the Arab and Western worlds. In addition, it studies principles and methods of architecture criticism, and provide training for the student to select architectural projects; local, regional and international, then analyzing them using selected phrases of criticism.		