

Course description:

Introduction to the environmental, social and economic aspects necessary in the formation of an urban planning process. The characteristics of the urban fabric and the development of towns and cities and their urban elements into integrated, harmonious and functional unity. Social services and infrastructure and their necessary provision according to norms and standards. Analysis of deteriorated urban areas to measure shortage of services.

Aims of the course:

This course aims to present the students with the concept of interior design, its basics and its elements, and teaches them how to design different interior spaces based on its function , shape and diminution , to came up with an architectural space that provides the best functionality , elegance and have a positive sociological effects .

Intended Learning Outcomes (ILOs):1. Knowledge skills:

Create the use of light, color, line and Furniture , texture on a three-dimensional shots in the production of architecture space, which accurately and interior architectural subjects.

2. Intellectual Skill

Expand student ability to imagine and articulate complicated forms into interior drawings

3. Subject Specific Skills:

- Improve student's skills in interior design and presentation

Techniques.

- Produce sketches of interiors which also accurately and expressively delineate the human form to scale, in the architectural context.

Course structures:

Week	C. Hrs	ILOs	Topics	Teaching Procedure	Assessment methods
Week01			Understanding and the basic terminals of interior design
Week02			Interior design elements
Week03			line
Week04			color
Week05			texture
Week06			Home spaces design
Week07			Home spaces design
Week08			curtains
Week09			Mid exam

Week10			Lighting
Week11			Display accessories
Week12			Show the methods to coordinate interior design elements
Week13			Vertical and horizontal requirements for architectural space
Week14			Stairs
Week15			Storage

References:

١. مدخل الى التصميم الداخلي Introduction to Interior Design

٢. التصميم الداخلي - نمير قاسم خلف

Assessment Methods:

Methods	Grade	Date
Mid exam	20
Assignments	20
Class participation	10
Final Exam	50

