

جامعة الزرقاء
ZARQA UNIVERSITY

Faculty of Information Technology

Introduction:

Based on the society's need for graduates of scientific disciplines, the Faculty of Information Technology was established at the beginning of the opening of the university in 1994, and its name was Faculty of Science and Information Technology, on 2015 this name was changed to become The Faculty of Information Technology, since then the Faculty has witnessed a clear quantitative and qualitative development, and the number of faculty members in the faculty today (68) members of various academic ranks, the faculty also has 20 administrative and technical employees.

Vision:

To be a scientific edifice of leadership and excellence in the field of education and scientific research and a center for innovation and creativity to serve the local, regional, and international community.

Mission:

Preparing qualified human employees in the field of information technology in its various branches to meet the requirements of the labor market, keep pace with development in its various fields, and conduct theoretical and applied scientific research that helps in community service and contributes to building and developing the society.

مبنى الفستاروق

كلية تكنولوجيا المعلومات

Objectives:

1. Developing and improving the educational environment in line with global and local developments.
2. Raising the scientific level of the graduates of the Faculty of Information Technology, which makes them distinguished and qualified locally, and internationally.
3. Raising the level of scientific research and increasing its effectiveness and productivity, especially applied scientific research.
4. Raising the level of performance in line with the requirements of academic accreditation.
5. Achieving cooperation between the faculty and the local community.

Core Values:

1. Scientific ethics and honesty: commitment to professional ethics that support the learning process (honesty, sincerity, perfection, respect, responsibility) and the preservation of individual property rights.
2. Quality, Excellence, Proficiency and Professionalism: Commitment to total quality, continuous improvement and excellence in all aspects of work, with high professionalism.
3. Leadership: Employing the individual capabilities of the work team in their appropriate places and enhancing them.
4. Teamwork: Working as a team and promoting the spirit of cooperation.
5. Creativity: Developing the spirit of creativity and enhance faith in the human ability to be creative.
6. Discovery: Expanding human knowledge, understanding and encouraging scientific research.